

WAYNE MESSMER

MOTIVATIONAL/INSPIRATIONAL
KEYNOTE SPEAKER

*“Keep the Faith...
Nobody Ever Said It Was Going
To Be Easy”*

Based on the core values of Faith, Family and Friends, Wayne Messmer walks the talk in this powerful multi-media presentation to dig deeply into the essence of taking responsibility for the roles in which we have been cast in our lives. He also looks squarely in the eye of enormous challenge that he was forced to face in his own life.

Using his personal true life story of having been shot in the throat as an innocent victim in a senseless act of violence in a robbery attempt, Wayne presents a straightforward message that clarifies the belief that it is not the severity of the setbacks in our lives, but our reaction to them that truly test what we are made of.

The difficult evolutionary process of moving from anger, hatred and wanting revenge for being victimized is examined and dissected to do the work required to move toward the ultimate achievement of freedom through healing and forgiveness. The presentation moves the audience past the darkness, bringing them to the point of realization that justice is not ours to dispense and the only antidote for revenge is forgiveness.

As the audience travels the journey with Wayne, they are reminded that hope is the basis of healing. The “Keep the Faith” Keynote presentation has been exceptionally effective in group settings that are intended to be reflective or spiritually awakening in nature.

This presentation is challenging, enlightening and insightful, while still remaining spellbindingly entertaining.
